

CHARTRES

A scenic view of a river in Chartres, France. The left bank is lined with trees in full bloom, displaying vibrant pink cherry blossoms. The right bank is a dense forest of tall, dark green trees. In the distance, a stone bridge with a central arch spans the river. The water is calm, reflecting the sky and the surrounding greenery. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and picturesque.

Pour découvrir CHARTRES et sa Cathédrale, une promenade sur les bords de l'Eure s'impose
