

As an activity in the ESL / EFL classroom, however, project work is sometimes referred to in disparaging(criticizing) terms.

For some teachers, 'project work' means plenty of preparation which may not be worth the effort,

while for some students

'project work'

suggests toil and boredom

with minimal benefit.

