

Proposing

After explaining the idea behind the project ask learners to propose a scheme of work:

- What they want to include in the project
- What form it will take
- Who will be responsible for what
- An idea of the time it will take to produce each part of the project
- Any material or resources they might need

